

CORRESPONDENCE

SCAPPOOSE

Lester Adams has been assigned to the battleship Ohio.

Miss Neva Boyle is enjoying a vacation at Seaside.

It was a pleasure to see Claude Duncan's face among his Scappoose friends the past week.

A. A. Whitel, professor of music, of Oregon City, was a guest of Mrs. Gatchell last week.

Dr. and Mrs. Hatfield were Portland visitors this week.

Mrs. Welsh, after visiting her daughter, Mrs. Dodson, is now visiting in Salem.

Mrs. J. B. Caples motored to Tillamook with Mr. and Mrs. Shaffer of Portland on Tuesday.

Cal Weaver left Saturday morning for Camp Lewis.

Mrs. L. Puzey of Warren, was the guest of Mrs. R. A. McKay Saturday.

The Red Cross will meet at the church next Tuesday at 2 p. m. The following officers were elected at the meeting this week: chairman, Mrs. William Campbell; vice chairman, Mrs. Lafa Brown; secretary, Mrs. Gatchell. Mrs. Price has charge of the knitting. Much of the work at present can be done at home and those desiring to help this worthy cause, can be supplied for the asking.

Congregational church—Sunday school, 10:15; morning worship, 11:15; evening service, 7:30. Notice change of time from 8 o'clock. Mr. Palmer will occupy pulpit morning and evening.

Dewey Richardson, a brakeman on the local freight, son of John Richardson, injured his leg when he attempted to jump on the engine; missed the step; his leg dragged on the ties, scraping the flesh from the bone. He was able to go to the hospital.

Callahan, Rabinsky and McKay returned from the woods with two fine deer this week.

The store car decided it was time for its summer vacation and on Friday, when Louis wanted to drive, Henry grew spunky, turned turtle into a ditch, making a secure cage for Louie. Fortunately nothing was hurt but the car.

The community sing will be held in the church Tuesday evening, 8 o'clock sharp. More people should make the effort to attend this meeting. It is instructive. Come and learn the patriotic songs and help the other fellow learn them.

Our neighbors are changing around. Mr. Ash has moved his family to Portland for the winter. Also Mrs. Laplan and children have taken apartments in Portland for the school months. Mrs. John Anderson moved to Portland Sunday, as her husband has employment there and Mr. Hutchinson vacated the D. W. Price cottage and moved into the one vacated by Mrs. Anderson. Mr. Yost moved from the Fish cottage.

School opened on Monday with the following teachers in charge: Prof. Dodson and Miss Keck in the high school; Miss Alexander, eighth grade; Mrs. Holaday, Mrs. Hatfield and Miss Notter, the other grades. Miss Martin has been secured to teach vocal in all the rooms. The vacancy in the high school will be filled as soon as possible.

Addie Adams and Wm. Faltz, both formerly of Scappoose, were married in Portland on Saturday.

Mrs. J. E. Miller, who is ill with typhoid fever is slowly improving. Her youngest daughter, Opal, is now ill with the same disease.

Mr. and Mrs. Montag and Mr. and Mrs. Wygant of Portland, motored down from that city and spent several days with Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Frakes.

Sunday last Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Frakes, Mr. and Mrs. McLaughlan and Mr. Ed Wickersham motored up the highway as far as Eagle Creek. On the return trip they stopped in Portland for Miss Amy Douthitt, who accompanied them to Scappoose and is a visitor at the Frakes home.

A committee meeting of the Fourth Liberty Loan was held in the hall on Monday evening and the following committees were appointed: rating committee, E. Wist, chairman; Dan Crowley, Chas. Koutek, J. G. Watts, Fred Adams, A. Hangerud. Space soliciting committee: A. F. Niblock, J. E. Gilmour, G. Grant, J. G. Watts, Mr. Hostettler. Publicity committee: Mrs. O. M. Washburn, Miss Maude Watts, Miss Eva Garrison, J. B. Dodson, J. B. alloy, Mrs. Fred Adams.

WARREN

Mrs. Wilson of Portland spent Sunday with Mrs. Carleton Lewis.

The Liberty Loan committee are making all preparations to go over the top by September 28th. Already a number have subscribed unsolicited and are on the Honor Roll. W. J. Fullerton was the first and Chas. R. Miller the second to come across and the outlook is that nearly everyone in Warren will subscribe without solicitation. The local committee will hold a meeting the latter part of the week to outline the place of campaign and allot the district. The committee consists of A. L. Morris, W. J. Fullerton and Elmer Dahlgren; Mrs. C. M. Hyskell, Mrs. Garriott and Miss Nora Larson. A speaker of well known repute will be at Warren to give a talk in the Scandinavian language, as well as American, in the near future. The honor list of those who volunteer will be placed in the post office at Warren and as fast as the subscriptions are received the chairman will add their names to the list of honor.

Major and Mrs. D. C. Howard of St. Helens spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Hyskell.

A number of the farmers of Warren and vicinity attended the tractor show at Gresham last week. Among those who went were, A. H. Tarbell, P. C. Jacobson, County Agent D. C. Howard, Mr. and Mrs. Uhlman of Scappoose and others.

The following young people will attend the St. Helens' high school this season from Warren: Leo Farr, Lawrence Anderson, Alphens Wellborn and Theodore Cooper; Laura Farr, Eva Tarbell, Anna Larson and Agnes Anderson.

Walter Olson will attend the Scappoose high school this winter.

P. J. Olson left on Monday for a fishing outing up the Columbia river. He will be away about a month.

W. D. (Towney) Green and Dennis Duncan have returned from a summer's fishing at the mouth of the Columbia river. They report a successful season.

Captain and Mrs. T. A. Hoyt made a trip to Seaside on Sunday. They were accompanied by a number of Warren friends.

A. L. Morris, fruit inspector, made a trip to Mist and vicinity last week on official business. He reports apples in that section in good condition and absolutely free from worms or disease.

Chairman W. J. Fullerton of the county fair board, is busy preparing the grounds and arranging matters for the fair.

S. Wellborn is our new mail carrier. His son, Alphens, has resigned to go to St. Helens.

Arthur E. Lund has returned from Seattle where he spent the summer. Arthur says he prefers Warren to Seattle, at least some of the girls here.

The meeting of the grange on Saturday night promises to be a banner one. The pros and cons of the objects of the dairyman's league will be discussed and a lively time is expected.

K. F. Larsen is stepping around as if on eggs these days. He says he is so young that he threatens to shave his mustache. The cause, a son to his son and daughter arrived last week. Mrs. Larsen is convalescent and Pete says the event has not had any effect on him.

The Warren Liberty Loan committee have made arrangements with state committee to have Hon. Conrad P. Olson deliver a Liberty Loan address at Erickson's hall, Monday night, September 16th. A large crowd is expected to turn out and hear Mr. Olson, who is considered one of the best speakers the state has.

GOBLE

Mr. R. B. Tupper, who was injured while working at the shipyards in Columbia City is able to go back to work. Mrs. Tupper is in a Portland hospital recovering from an operation.

Goble hunters have been very successful this season. Nick Welter, Jr., brought home a deer from his father's ranch back of Goble the first day of the season. I. B. Tipton, J. L. Archibald, A. Larson and H. Welter were also among the lucky ones.

Mrs. Thompson and two children of Portland are visiting with Mrs. Given of Goble.

Audrey Mallaber of Goble has returned to school in Rainier. Geneva Fowler, Nick and Mayme Welter, Glen Larson and Ada Neer have entered the Kalama high school.
